Camp Speakers

Major Owen Budden & Major Sandra Budden

Owen was first introduced to The Salvation Army through his wife, Sandra. He was a high school English teacher for eight years before sensing God calling him into another type of ministry. After much searching, he became convinced that God was asking him to serve as a Salvation Army Officer.

Sandra was raised in a Salvation Army home in Happy Valley-Goose Bay, Labrador. After receiving her Bachelor of Nursing (B.N.) from Memorial University of Newfoundland, she accepted a nursing position in St. Anthony, where she met and married Owen.

They entered the College for Officer Training (CFOT) in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, from 1993 to 1995 and were commissioned in The Messengers of Hope Session. The Buddens have served as Corps Officers in Markham, Ontario; Halifax, Nova Scotia; Woodstock, Ontario; and Winnipeg, Manitoba. They also served in Papua New Guinea as Training Principal and Education Officer, and later as Administrator and Chaplain at a Salvation Army school. They are set to retire in July 2025.

Owen has completed his Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.), Master of Divinity (M.Div.), and most recently, a certificate in Spiritual Direction. Sandra holds a B.N. and a Master of Arts (M.A.) in Global Studies.

...“Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?”...

...Jesus replied, “‘You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, honor your father and mother,’ and ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’”

“All these I have kept,” the young man said. “What do I still lack?”

Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Matthew 19: 16,18-21

Please Note:

Children must stay with a single occupant adult or two double occupant adults and have the same meal plan as their parents/guardians.
